

Schoups – Corporate Law - First year

Profile

We are looking for a dynamic and motivated first year lawyer with a strong interest in corporate law.

You will have the opportunity to work on engaging cases and to further develop your expertise, in close collaboration with colleagues in Antwerp and Brussels.

- You hold a Master's degree in Belgian Law, preferably with a specialization or proven knowledge in corporate law.
- You have an excellent command of Dutch and a good knowledge of French and English, both spoken and written.
- You have strong legal and analytical skills, supported by solid academic results.
- You work accurately and professionally, are assertive when needed, and function well within a team, while also being able to work independently.
- You are motivated, eager to learn, and ready to take on responsibility in challenging cases.

Tasks and responsibilities

- Actively participate in the management of files within the corporate law department.
- Handle files independently and advise and represent clients, under the supervision of a senior lawyer.
- Actively contribute to the development of the firm, for example by drafting newsletters or preparing and delivering training sessions.

Offer

We offer a stimulating work environment with interesting and varied cases. In addition, we provide an extensive range of internal training opportunities such as coaching, seminars, and courses to support your professional development. An attractive remuneration package is, of course, part of the offer.
